Journal of Commerce and Business Studies

Department of Commerce formally set up as a separate entity in 1967, has imbibed the Delhi School of Economics tradition of exploring new frontiers of knowledge and innovation in academics. In its history spanning over three decades, it has redefined commerce education in the country and its rapid growth is reflected in the expansion as well as novelty of its academic programmes. To extend further the dissemination of knowledge, department wishes to publish its bi-annual journal titled Journal of Commerce and Business Studies.

Journal of Commerce and Business Studies - a peer reviewed journal – will address a wide range of research areas related to Management, Commerce, Economics, Business, Retailing, Finance, Marketing, Human Resource, Banking, Insurance, Corporate Governance and emerging paradigms as allied areas of knowledge. Academicians, professionals and researchers in all parentheses related to commerce and business are, therefore, invited to submit their research articles and reviews, validations and the impact of new emerging issues on business, and case studies for publication in the journal. For publications, the papers will be selected through double peer review process to ensure their originality, relevance, and credibility.

Authors are invited to submit their manuscript, prepared as per the enclosed guidelines, for publication in the journal. Manuscript should be submitted online at commercejournal.dse@gmail.com. Once accepted for publication author will be intimated about the specific issue of journal the manuscript will be published.
