No. O-11011/16/2013-CWF

Dated the 28th March,, 2014

To

The Registrar
University of Delhi
Delhi

Sir,

As you are aware this Department had sanctioned funds to the University of Delhi for setting up and running a National Consumer Helpline since 2004. However as per the communications received from the University recently, it is understood that the University is not in a position to run the Helpline anymore. Since the Helpline, a public service instrument started by this Department cannot be closed down and need to be continued in public interest, this Department has decided to shift the National Consumer Helpline from the University to another organisation.

2. As per the terms and conditions of sanctions issued dated 28.7.2004, to the University and as per the MOUs, all assets (physical or intellectual) created/acquired under the Helpline project, are the property of the Government of India and the ownership/copyright etc vests with the Government.
3. You are therefore requested to hand over all physical and intellectual assets and files created / acquired/ maintained under the Project to this Department so as to enable smooth transfer of the same to this Department. Mr G. N. Sreekumaran, Consultant and Prof. Suresh Misra are authorized to take delivery and shift the material to our new site.
4. Immediate urgent action is solicited in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

(Manoj Parida)
Joint Secretary
