

Guidelines for Paper 4.4(a) B.Com (Hons.): Indian Economy .

A meeting for guidelines was held on 5th Jan 2017 at 12.30 pm at SRCC

1. 5 classes and 1 tutorial per student per week.
2. Maximum number of lectures will be 75 periods.
3. No. of lectures allotted to each unit:
 - Unit I : 8 lectures (appx.)
 - Unit II : 2 lectures (appx.)
 - Unit III : 8 lectures (appx.)
 - Unit IV : 17 lectures (appx.)
 - Unit V : 40 lectures (appx.)
 - (a) Agriculture : 10 lectures
 - (b) Industry and Services: 15 lectures
 - (c) Financial Sector: 15 lectures
4. Unit II – Basic features of Indian Economy at Independence – to be deemphasized and no question will be asked from this topic.
5. Financial Sector which is V (c) should be read as V C(1): The financial Sector : 3 lectures.
 - & V C(2) foreign trade and balance of payments : 12 lectures
6. In Unit III, Niti Aayog concept be introduced (by teachers) in the class.
7. In Unit V (c), India at the UN and Security Council reform to be deemphasized and no question will be asked from these two topics.
8. Topic Human Development which is there in both Unit I and IV be taught in Unit I.
9. These guidelines must be provided to the paper setters.
10. Structure of Question Paper
 - I. There will be 5 questions with internal choice and each question will be of 15 marks and will have internal choice.
 - II. 1/2 question from Unit I & II.
 - III. $1\frac{1}{2}$ questions from Unit III & IV.
 - IV. 3 questions from Unit V.
 - V. For questions involving data analysis, the relevant data shall be provided in the question paper & such questions may be asked only from Unit V.

