NOTICE

REVISION OF COMMERCE COURSES

To all concerned stakeholders

The Department of Commerce, University of Delhi is engaged at present in revising its Academic Programmes:

1. M.Com
2. MBA (International Business) & MBA (Human Resource Development)
3. B.Com (Hons)
4. B.COM.

In this process, the Department has constituted different working groups and has consulted college teachers and students through interactive sessions and has already held a series of meetings in the department with a view to design an appropriate course structure and course contents for the benefit of students and stakeholders.

The department has received many inputs and suggestions and is working on them. However, it would be in the fitness of things if the department receives your inputs /suggestions so that they could be duly considered while finalising the above courses.

Your valuable suggestions should point out, preferably

- What should be the core or compulsory papers at the PG level programmes?
- What should be the Elective Courses at PG level programmes?
- What should be the Elective courses at under-graduate level?
- What should be the different specialisation areas and which courses should be included in these specialisation areas?
- Any other suggestions, if any.

The existing under-graduate and post-graduate courses may be referred at www.commerce.du.ac.in

The Department will appreciate and will be thankful for your valuable opinions, suggestions, and inputs which may be sent at the mail id headoffice.commerce@gmail.com latest by 22nd April, 2018.

Awaiting an early response
